REVIEW OF THE WILMINGTON MARkets for the Week ending Thursday. April 4, 1867.

TURPENTINE-Has been in fair demand for distilling purposes throughout the week just ended, and upon arrival has found ready sale at $4 for yellow dip, and $2 75 for hard, $2 280 lbs. Nearly or quite all of the old crop having been brought to market, the receipts for the past month have been unusually light, and must continue to be confined to small lots until the new crop reaches market, which will be in a few weeks. The receipts and sales since our last comprise only 218 bbls. at Brunswick county. above figures. SPIRITS LURPENTINE-At the time of closing our eport on Thursday last there was a dullness in ne market, and buyers were not disposed to operate unless at a lower price. On Friday there was a decline of one cent, and sales were made at day, when there was some activity among buyers. and 70@71 cents was obtained, sales being at highest figure up to the close of Wednesday. To-bbls. for the week, as follows: til 13 years ago. He then left that State and Friday 115 bbls. at 69@70 cents & gallon. Wednesday 25 " " 71 Rosin - We have no change of importance to report in the market for either grades during the any particular neighborhood, but exists in every neighborhood. Those who were once wealthy, and are now the best off, are unauditor of Virginia, on Friday called upon ted friends to mourn his loss. It may be said of receipts and the scarcity of stock the transactions have been rather light for the week. The sales
